Item 7.01 Regulation FD

As previously reported, in connection with certain claims by Capital Royalty Partners II L.P., as Secured Party and as Control Agent, Capital Royalty Partners II – Parallel Fund “A” L.P., as Secured Party, and Parallel Investment Opportunities Partners II L.P., as Secured Party (collectively, “CRG”), of events of default under a loan agreement, CRG filed a Verified Second Amended Petition and Application for Temporary Injunction on June 1, 2016, in The District Court of Harris County, Texas against Navidea Biopharmaceuticals, Inc. (the “Company”) seeking to restrain the Company and its subsidiary guarantors from operating or using new accounts established by the Company without having first entered into the requisite blocked account control and pledge collateral account control agreements with CRG.

On August 30, 2016, The District Court of Harris County, Texas granted CRG’s Application for Temporary Injunction. The Court provided the Company with 21 days to enter into the requisite account control agreements with CRG. The Company intends to appeal and is exploring its other options with respect to the Order and the CRG debt.

The words “believe,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “estimate,” “project,” and similar expressions identify forward-looking statements that speak only as of the date hereof. Investors are cautioned that such statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from historical or anticipated results due to many factors including, but not limited to, the Company’s continuing operating losses, ability to repay debt, the outcome of the CRG litigation, uncertainty of market acceptance, reliance on third party manufacturers, accumulated deficit, future capital needs, uncertainty of capital funding, dependence on limited product line and distribution channels, competition, limited marketing and manufacturing experience, and other risks detailed in the Company’s most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and other filings with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission.
