Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Effective February 15, 2009, the Board of Directors of Neoprobe Corporation (the "Company") appointed Frederick O. Cope, Ph.D., age 62, as the Company's Vice President of Pharmaceutical Research and Clinical Development. Prior to accepting this position with the Company, Dr. Cope served as the Assistant Director for Research and Head of Program Research Development for The Ohio State University Comprehensive Cancer Center, The James Cancer Hospital and The Richard J. Solove Research Institute, from April 2001 to February 2009. Dr. Cope is also active in a number of professional and scientific organizations such as serving as an Ad Hoc Member of the FDA Scientific Advisory Panel and a member of Emory University's Scientific Advisory Board. Dr. Cope received his BSc from the Delaware Valley College of Science and Agriculture, his MS from Millersville University of Pennsylvania and his Ph.D. from the University of Connecticut.

The Company has entered into an employment agreement with Dr. Cope, with a term commencing February 15, 2009, and terminating February 14, 2010 (the "Employment Agreement"). Pursuant to the terms of the Employment Agreement, Dr. Cope will receive an annual base salary of $200,000, and may receive an annual bonus at the discretion of the Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee of the Company's Board of Directors (the "Committee"), in accordance with any bonus plan adopted by the Committee. The Employment Agreement also provides for Dr. Cope's participation in the Company's employee benefit programs, stock based incentive compensation plans and other benefits as described in the Employment Agreement.

In the event of the termination of Dr. Cope's employment with the Company for "cause," all salary, benefits and other payments shall cease at the time of termination, and the Company shall have no further obligations to Dr. Cope. If Dr. Cope resigns for any reason other than a Change of Control (as that term is defined in the Employment Agreement) as described below, all salary, benefits and other payments shall cease at the time such resignation becomes effective. If Dr. Cope dies or his employment is terminated because of disability, all salary, benefits and other payments shall cease at the time of death or disability, provided, however, that the Company shall continue to provide Dr. Cope with such health, dental and similar insurance or benefits as were provided to Dr. Cope immediately before his termination for the longer of 12 months after such termination or the full unexpired term of his employment agreement. In the event of the termination of Dr. Cope's employment by the Company without "cause," the Company shall, at the time of such termination, pay to Dr. Cope $150,000, together with the value of any accrued but unused vacation time, and the amount of all accrued but previously unpaid base salary through the date of such termination. Additionally, the Company shall continue to provide Dr. Cope with all of the benefits provided to him pursuant to the Company's employee benefit plans for the longer of nine months or the full unexpired term of the Employment Agreement.

The Company also must pay severance, under certain circumstances, in the event of a Change of Control. The Employment Agreement provides that if there is a Change in Control and Dr. Cope is concurrently or subsequently terminated (a) by the Company without cause, (b) by the expiration of the term of the Employment Agreement, or (c) by the resignation of Dr. Cope because he has reasonably determined in good faith that his titles, authorities, responsibilities, salary, bonus opportunities or benefits have been materially diminished, that a material adverse change in his working conditions has occurred, that his services are no longer required in light of the Company's business plan, or the Company has breached the Employment Agreement, the Company shall pay to Dr. Cope $300,000, together with the value of any accrued but unused vacation time, and the amount of all accrued but previously unpaid base salary through the date of termination and shall continue to provide Dr. Cope with all of the benefits provided to him pursuant to the Company's employee benefit plans for the longer of 9 months or the full unexpired term of his employment agreement.

The Employment Agreement also contains non-competition and non-solicitation covenants. These covenants, as described in the Employment Agreement, are effective during employment and for a period of one year following termination of employment. The foregoing description of the Employment Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Employment Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and which is incorporated herein by reference.

Also in connection with Dr. Cope's appointment, the Company: (1) granted Dr. Cope 50,000 options to purchase shares of the Company's common stock; and (2) issued Dr. Cope 100,000 restricted shares of the Company's common stock. The stock options and shares of restricted stock were granted under the Second Amended and Restated Neoprobe Corporation 2002 Stock Incentive Plan. In connection with the grant of the options, the Company entered into a stock option agreement with Dr. Cope in the form attached as Exhibit 10.1 to the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed December 21, 2006. In connection with the issuance of the restricted stock, the Company entered into a restricted stock award and agreement with Dr. Cope in the form attached as Exhibit 10.3 to the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed January 9, 2008. Each option entitles Dr. Cope to purchase one share of the Company's common stock upon vesting, at a price of $0.65 per share. The options vest over three years, one-third on each of the first three anniversaries of the date of the grant. The shares of restricted stock will vest 50% upon the receipt of clearance to market Lymphoseek in either the U.S. or EU, and 50% upon commencement of a RIGS Phase 3 clinical trial.

On February 10, 2009, the Company issued a press release entitled “Neoprobe Hires V.P. of Pharmaceutical Research & Clinical Development” in connection with the appointment of Dr. Cope. A copy the Company’s February 10, 2009, press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Statements contained or incorporated by reference in this Current Report on Form 8-K which relate to other than strictly historical facts, such as statements about the Company’s plans and strategies, expectations for future financial performance, new and existing products and technologies, and markets for the Company’s products, are forward-looking statements. The words “believe,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “estimate,” “project,” and similar expressions identify forward-looking statements that speak only as of the date hereof. Investors are cautioned that such statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from historical or anticipated results due to many factors including, but not limited to, the Company’s continuing operating losses, uncertainty of market acceptance, reliance on third party manufacturers, accumulated deficit, future capital needs, uncertainty of capital funding, dependence on limited product line and distribution channels, competition, limited marketing and manufacturing experience, and other risks detailed in the Company’s most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and other Securities and Exchange Commission filings. The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

This Employment Agreement is made and entered into effective as of January 19, 2009 (the "Effective Date"), by and between Neoprobe Corporation, a Delaware Corporation with a place of business at 425 Metro Place North, Suite 300, Dublin, Ohio 43017-1367 (the "Company") and Frederick O. Cope of Westerville, Ohio (the "Employee").

WHEREAS, the Company and the Employee wish to establish terms, covenants, and conditions for the Employee's employment with the Company through this agreement ("Employment Agreement").

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual agreements herein set forth, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Duties. From and after the Effective Date, and based upon the terms and conditions set forth herein, the Company agrees to employ the Employee and the Employee agrees to be employed by the Company, as Vice-President, Pharmaceutical Research and Clinical Development of the Company and in such equivalent, additional or higher executive level position or positions as shall be assigned to him by the Company's President and CEO. While serving in such executive level position or positions, the Employee shall report to, be responsible to, and shall take direction from the President and CEO of the Company. During the Term of this Employment Agreement (as defined in Section 2 below), the Employee agrees to devote substantially all of his working time to the position he holds with the Company and to faithfully, industriously, and to the best of his ability, experience and talent, perform the duties that are assigned to him. The Employee shall observe and abide by the reasonable corporate policies and decisions of the Company in all business matters disclosed to employee.

The Employee represents and warrants to the Company that Exhibit A attached hereto sets forth a true and complete list of (a) all offices, directorships and other positions held by the Employee in corporations and firms other than the Company and its subsidiaries and (b) any investment or ownership interest in any corporation or firm other than the Company beneficially owned by the Employee (excluding investments in life insurance policies, bank deposits, publicly traded securities that are less than five percent (5%) of their class and real estate). The Employee will promptly notify the Board of Directors of the Company of any additional positions undertaken or investments made by the Employee during the Term of this Employment Agreement if they are of a type that if they had existed on the date hereof, should have been listed on Exhibit A hereto. As long as the Employee's other positions or investments in other firms do not create a conflict of interest, violate the Employee's obligations under Section 7 below or cause the Employee to neglect his duties hereunder, such activities and positions shall not be deemed to be a breach of this Employment Agreement.

2. Term of this Employment Agreement. Subject to Sections 4 and 5 hereof, the Term of this Employment Agreement shall be for a period of twelve (12) months, commencing February 15, 2009 and terminating February 14, 2010.
 3. Compensation. During the Term of this Employment Agreement, the Company shall pay, and the Employee agrees to accept as full consideration for the services to be rendered by the Employee hereunder, compensation consisting of the following:
 - A. Salary. Beginning on the first day of the Term of this Employment Agreement, the Company shall pay the Employee a salary of Two Hundred Thousand Dollars ($200,000) per year, payable in semi-monthly or monthly installments as requested by the Employee. Further, the Company agrees to review the Employee's base salary by January 1, 2010.
 - B. Bonus. The Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee (the "Committee") of the Board of Directors will, on an annual basis, review the performance of the Company and of the Employee and will pay such bonus, as it deems appropriate, in its discretion, to the Employee based upon such review. Such review and bonus shall be consistent with any bonus plan adopted by the Committee, which covers the executive officers and employees of the Company generally.

- C. Benefits. During the Term of this Employment Agreement, the Employee will receive such employee benefits as are generally available to all employees of the Company.
- D. Stock Options. The Committee of the Board of Directors may, from time-to-time, grant stock options, restricted stock purchase opportunities and such other forms of stock-based incentive compensation as it deems appropriate, in its discretion, to the Employee under the Company's Second Amended and Restated 2002 Stock Incentive Plan (the "2002 Plan"). The terms of the relevant award agreements shall govern the rights of the Employee and the Company thereunder in the event of any conflict between such agreement and this Employment Agreement.
- E. Vacation. The Employee shall be entitled to twenty (20) days of vacation during each calendar year during the Term of this Employment Agreement.
- F. Expenses. The Company shall reimburse the Employee for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by him in the performance of his duties hereunder, including expenses for travel, entertainment and similar items, promptly after the presentation by the Employee, from time-to-time, of an itemized account of such expenses.

4. Termination.

- A. For Cause. The Company may terminate the employment of the Employee prior to the end of the Term of this Employment Agreement "for cause." Termination "for cause" shall be defined as a termination by the Company of the employment of the Employee occasioned by the failure by the Employee to cure a willful breach of a material duty imposed on the Employee under this Employment Agreement within 15 days after written notice thereof by the Company or the continuation by the Employee after written notice by the Company of a willful and continued neglect of a duty imposed on the Employee under this Employment Agreement. In the event of termination by the Company "for cause," all salary, benefits and other payments shall cease at the time of termination, and the Company shall have no further obligations to the Employee.
- B. Resignation. If the Employee resigns for any reason, all salary, benefits and other payments (except as otherwise provided in paragraph G of this Section 4 below) shall cease at the time such resignation becomes effective. At the time of any such resignation, the Company shall pay the Employee the value of any accrued but unused vacation time, and the amount of all accrued but previously unpaid base salary through the date of such termination. The Company shall promptly reimburse the Employee for the amount of any expenses incurred prior to such termination by the Employee as required under paragraph F of Section 3 above.
- C. Disability, Death. The Company may terminate the employment of the Employee prior to the end of the Term of this Employment Agreement if the Employee has been unable to perform his duties hereunder or a similar job for a continuous period of six (6) months due to a physical or mental condition that, in the opinion of a licensed physician, will be of indefinite duration or is without a reasonable probability of recovery for a period of at least six (6) months. The Employee agrees to submit to an examination by a licensed physician of his choice in order to obtain such opinion, at the request of the Company, made after the Employee has been absent from his place of employment for at least six (6) months. The Company shall pay for any requested examination. However, this provision does not abrogate either the Company's or the Employee's rights and obligations pursuant to the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, and a termination of employment under this paragraph C shall not be deemed to be a termination for cause.

If during the Term of this Employment Agreement, the Employee dies or his employment is terminated because of his disability, all salary, benefits and other payments shall cease at the time of death or disability, provided, however, that the Company shall provide such health, dental and similar insurance or benefits as were provided to Employee immediately before his termination by reason of death or disability, to Employee or his family for the longer of twelve (12) months after such termination or the full un-expired Term of this Employment Agreement on the same terms and conditions (including cost) as were applicable before such termination. In addition, for the first six (6) months of disability, the Company shall pay to the Employee the difference, if any, between any cash benefits received by the Employee from a Company-sponsored disability insurance policy and the Employee's salary hereunder in accordance with paragraph A of Section 3 above. At the time of any such termination, the Company shall pay the Employee, the value of any accrued but unused vacation time, and the amount of all accrued but previously unpaid base salary through the date of such termination. The Company shall promptly reimburse the Employee for the amount of any expenses incurred prior to such termination by the Employee as required under paragraph F of Section 3 above.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Company reasonably determines that any of the benefits described in this paragraph C may not be exempt from federal income tax, then for a period of six (6) months after the date of the Employee's termination, the Employee shall pay to the Company an amount equal to the stated taxable cost of such coverages. After the expiration of the six-month period, the Employee shall receive from the Company a reimbursement of the amounts paid by the Employee.

- D. Termination without Cause. A termination without cause is a termination of the employment of the Employee by the Company that is not "for cause" and not occasioned by the resignation, death or disability of the Employee. If the Company terminates the employment of the Employee without cause, (whether before the end of the Term of this Employment Agreement or, if the Employee is employed by the Company under paragraph E of this Section 4 below, after the Term of this Employment Agreement has ended) the Company shall, at the time of such termination, pay to the Employee the severance payment provided in paragraph F of this Section 4 below together with the value of any accrued but unused vacation time and the amount of all accrued but previously unpaid base salary through the date of such termination and shall provide him with all of his benefits under paragraph C of Section 3 above for the longer of nine (9) months or the full un-expired Term of this Employment Agreement. The Company shall promptly reimburse the Employee for the amount of any expenses incurred prior to such termination by the Employee as required under paragraph F of Section 3 above.

If the Company terminates the employment of the Employee because it has ceased to do business or substantially completed the liquidation of its assets or because it has relocated to another city and the Employee has decided not to relocate also, such termination of employment shall be deemed to be without cause.

- E. End of the Term of this Employment Agreement. Except as otherwise provided in paragraphs F and G of this Section 4 below, the Company may terminate the employment of the Employee at the end of the Term of this Employment Agreement without any liability on the part of the Company to the Employee but, if the Employee continues to be an employee of the Company after the Term of this Employment Agreement ends, his employment shall be governed by the terms and conditions of this Agreement, but he shall be an employee at will and his employment may be terminated at any time by either the Company or the Employee without notice and for any reason not prohibited by law or no reason at all. If the Company terminates the employment of the Employee at the end of the Term of this Employment Agreement, the Company shall, at the time of such termination, pay to the Employee the severance payment provided in paragraph F of this Section 4 below together with the value of any accrued but unused vacation time and the amount of all accrued but previously unpaid base salary through the date of such termination. The Company shall promptly reimburse the Employee for the amount of any reasonable expenses incurred prior to such termination by the Employee as required under paragraph F of Section 3 above.

- F. Severance. If the employment of the Employee is terminated by the Company, at the end of the Term of this Employment Agreement or, without cause (whether before the end of the Term of this Employment Agreement or, if the Employee is employed by the Company under paragraph E of this Section 4 above, after the Term of this Employment Agreement has ended), the Employee shall be paid, as a severance payment at the time of such termination, the amount of One Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($150,000) together with the value of any accrued but unused vacation time.
- G. Change of Control Severance. In addition to the rights of the Employee under the Company's employee benefit plans (paragraphs C of Section 3 above) but in lieu of any severance payment under paragraph F of this Section 4 above, if there is a Change in Control of the Company (as defined below) and the employment of the Employee is concurrently or subsequently terminated (a) by the Company without cause, (b) by the expiration of the Term of this Employment Agreement, or (c) by the resignation of the Employee because he has reasonably determined in good faith that his titles, authorities, responsibilities, salary, bonus opportunities or benefits have been materially diminished, that a material adverse change in his working conditions has occurred, that his services are no longer required in light of the Company's business plan, or the Company has breached this Employment Agreement, the Company shall pay the Employee, as a severance payment, at the time of such termination, the amount of Three Hundred Thousand Dollars ($300,000) together with the value of any accrued but unused vacation time, and the amount of all accrued but previously unpaid base salary through the date of termination and shall provide him with all of this benefits under paragraph C of Section 3 above for the longer of twelve (12) months or the full un-expired Term of this Employment Agreement. The Company shall promptly reimburse the Employee for the amount of any expenses incurred prior to such termination by the Employee as required under paragraph F of Section 3 above. Notwithstanding the foregoing, before the Employee may resign pursuant to Section 4(G)(c) above, the Employee shall deliver to the Company a written notice of the Employee's intent to terminate his employment pursuant to Section 4(G)(c), and the Company shall have been given a reasonable opportunity to cure any such act, omission or condition within Thirty (30) days after the Company's receipt of such notice.

For the purpose of this Employment Agreement, a Change in Control of the Company has occurred when: (a) any person (defined for the purposes of this paragraph G to mean any person within the meaning of Section 13 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act")), other than Neoprobe, an employee benefit plan created by its Board of Directors for the benefit of its employees, or a participant in a transaction approved by its Board of Directors for the principal purpose of raising additional capital, either directly or indirectly, acquires beneficial ownership (determined under Rule 13d-3 of the Regulations promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission under Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act) of securities issued by Neoprobe having thirty percent (30%) or more of the voting power of all the voting securities issued by Neoprobe in the election of Directors at the next meeting of the holders of voting securities to be held for such purpose; (b) a majority of the Directors elected at any meeting of the holders of voting securities of Neoprobe are persons who were not nominated for such election by the Board of Directors or a duly constituted committee of the Board of Directors having authority in such matters; (c) the stockholders of Neoprobe approve a merger or consolidation of Neoprobe with another person other than a merger or consolidation in which the holders of Neoprobe's voting securities issued and outstanding immediately before such merger or consolidation continue to hold voting securities in the surviving or resulting corporation (in the same relative proportions to each other as existed before such event) comprising eighty percent (80%) or more of the voting power for all purposes of the surviving or resulting corporation; or (d) the stockholders of Neoprobe approve a transfer of substantially all of the assets of Neoprobe to another person other than a transferee, eighty percent (80%) or more of the voting power of which is owned or controlled by Neoprobe or by the holders of Neoprobe's voting securities issued and outstanding immediately before such transfer in the same relative proportions to each other as existed before such event. The parties hereto agree that for the purpose of determining the time when a Change of Control has occurred that if any transaction results from a definite proposal that was made before the end of the Term of this Employment Agreement but which continued until after the end of the Term of this Employment Agreement and such transaction is consummated after the end of the Term of this Employment Agreement, such transaction shall be deemed to have occurred when the definite proposal was made for the purposes of the first sentence of this paragraph G of this Section 4.

H. Benefit and Stock Plans. In the event that a benefit plan or Stock Plan which covers the Employee has specific provisions concerning termination of employment, or the death or disability of an employee (e.g., life insurance or disability insurance), then such benefit plan or Stock Plan shall control the disposition of the benefits or stock options.

5. Proprietary Information Agreement. Employee has executed a Proprietary Information Agreement as a condition of employment with the Company. The Proprietary Information Agreement shall not be limited by this Employment Agreement in any manner, and the Employee shall act in accordance with the provisions of the Proprietary Information Agreement at all times during the Term of this Employment Agreement.

6. Non-Competition. Employee agrees that for so long as he is employed by the Company under this Employment Agreement and for one (1) year thereafter, the Employee will not:

- A. enter into the employ of or render any services to any person, firm, or corporation, which is engaged, in any part, in a Competitive Business (as defined below);
- B. engage in any directly Competitive Business for his own account;
- C. become associated with or interested in through retention or by employment any Competitive Business as an individual, partner, shareholder, creditor, director, officer, principal, agent, employee, trustee, consultant, advisor, or in any other relationship or capacity; or
- D. solicit, interfere with, or endeavor to entice away from the Company, any of its customers, strategic partners, or sources of supply.

Nothing in this Employment Agreement shall preclude Employee from taking employment in the banking or related financial services industries nor from investing his personal assets in the securities or any Competitive Business if such securities are traded on a national stock exchange or in the over-the-counter market and if such investment does not result in his beneficially owning, at any time, more than one percent (1%) of the publicly-traded equity securities of such Competitive Business. "Competitive Business" for purposes of this Employment Agreement shall mean any business or enterprise which:

- a. is engaged in the development and/or commercialization of gamma radiation detection products and/or systems for use in intraoperative detection of cancer, or
- b. reasonably understood to be competitive in the relevant market with products and/or systems described in clause a above, or
- c. the Company engages in during the Term of this Employment Agreement pursuant to a determination of the Board of Directors and from which the Company derives a material amount of revenue or in which the Company has made a material capital investment.

The covenant set forth in this Section 6 shall terminate immediately upon the substantial completion of the liquidation of assets of the Company or the termination of the employment of the Employee by the Company without cause or at the end of the Term of this Employment Agreement.

7. Arbitration. Any dispute or controversy arising under or in connection with this Employment Agreement shall be settled exclusively by arbitration in Columbus, Ohio, in accordance with the non-union employment arbitration rules of the American Arbitration Association (“AAA”) then in effect. If specific non-union employment dispute rules are not in effect, then AAA commercial arbitration rules shall govern the dispute. If the amount claimed exceeds $100,000, the arbitration shall be before a panel of three arbitrators. Judgment may be entered on the arbitrator’s award in any court having jurisdiction. The Company shall indemnify the Employee against and hold him harmless from any attorney’s fees, court costs and other expenses incurred by the Employee in connection with the preparation, commencement, prosecution, defense, or enforcement of any arbitration, award, confirmation or judgment in order to assert or defend any right or obtain any payment under paragraph C of Section 4 above or under this sentence; without regard to the success of the Employee or his attorney in any such arbitration or proceeding.

8. Governing Law. The Employment Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Ohio.
9. Validity. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision or provisions of this Employment Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of the Employment Agreement, which shall remain in full force and effect.
10. Compliance with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code. If, when the Employee’s employment with the Company terminates, the Employee is a “specified employee” as defined in Section 409A(a)(1)(B)(i) of the Internal Revenue Code, and if any payments under this Employment Agreement, including payments under Section 4, will result in additional tax or interest to the Employee under Section 409A(a)(1)(B) (“Section 409A Penalties”), then despite any provision of this Employment Agreement to the contrary, the Employee will not be entitled to payments until the earliest of (a) the date that is at least six months after termination of the Employee’s employment for reasons other than the Employee’s death, (b) the date of the Employee’s death, or (c) any earlier date that does not result in Section 409A Penalties to the Employee. As soon as practicable after the end of the period during which payments are delayed under this provision, the entire amount of the delayed payments shall be paid to the Employee in a lump sum. Additionally, if any provision of this Employment Agreement would subject the Employee to Section 409A Penalties, the Company will apply such provision in a manner consistent with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code during any period in which an arrangement is permitted to comply operationally with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code and before a formal amendment to this Employment Agreement is required.
11. Entire Agreement. This Employment Agreement constitutes the entire understanding between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, superseding all negotiations, prior discussions, and preliminary agreements. This Employment Agreement may not be amended except in writing executed by the parties hereto.
12. Effect on Successors of Interest. This Employment Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon heirs, administrators, executors, successors and assigns of each of the parties hereto. Notwithstanding the above, the Employee recognizes and agrees that his obligation under this Employment Agreement may not be assigned without the consent of the Company.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed and delivered this Employment Agreement as of the date first written above.

NEOPROBE HIRES V.P. OF PHARMACEUTICAL RESEARCH & CLINICAL DEVELOPMENT

Frederick O. Cope, Ph.D. to Join Neoprobe Executive Team

DUBLIN, OHIO — February 10, 2009 — Neoprobe Corporation (OTCBB: NEOP), a diversified developer of innovative oncology and cardiovascular surgical and diagnostic products, announced today that Frederick O. Cope, Ph.D. will be joining Neoprobe Corporation as its Vice President of Pharmaceutical Research and Clinical Development.

Dr. Cope has most recently served as the Assistant Director for Research and Head of Program Research Development for The Ohio State University Comprehensive Cancer Center, The James Cancer Hospital and The Richard J. Solove Research Institute. Dr. Cope also served for a number of years as the Ernest W. Volwiler Fellow and Head, Cancer and AIDS Research Effort for Abbot Laboratories-Ross Division. Dr. Cope is active in a number of professional and scientific organizations such as serving as a current Ad Hoc Candidate of the FDA Scientific Advisory Panel, a member of Emory University's Informatics Advisory Board, and as a full member of the American Society of Clinical Oncology. Dr. Cope received his BSc from the Delaware Valley College of Science and Agriculture, his MS from Millersville University of Pennsylvania and his Ph.D. from the University of Connecticut.

David Bupp, Neoprobe's President and CEO, said, "Neoprobe is very pleased to have someone with Dr. Cope's pharmaceutical development, clinical and regulatory experience join our management team. Fred is joining us at an exciting point in our corporate development as we work through the pivotal clinical trials and prepare for the regulatory submissions to support marketing clearance for Lymphoseek® and as we make visible progress in reinvigorating our development activities related to RIGScan® CR. We look forward to his contributions to our team and to the success of Neoprobe Corporation."

Fred Cope, Neoprobe's Vice President of Pharmaceutical Research and Clinical Development, said, "I look forward to becoming part of the Neoprobe team and to the approval of the initial applications of Lymphoseek. This successful program will provide a unique and remarkably valuable tool for the benefit of patients, and I believe, set a new standard in intra-operative diagnosis. I look forward to contributing to the Lymphoseek program and supporting Neoprobe's other development initiatives."

Lymphoseek is a proprietary radioactive tracing agent being developed for use in connection with gamma detection devices in a surgical procedure known as Intraoperative Lymphatic Mapping (ILM). A Phase 3 multi-center clinical trial for Lymphoseek in patients with breast cancer or melanoma is underway and a protocol for a second Phase 3 clinical study to evaluate the efficacy of Lymphoseek as a sentinel lymph node tracing agent in patients with head and neck squamous cell carcinoma has been submitted to the U.S. Food and Drug Administration and the European Medicines Agency.
