Explanatory Note

This Form 8-K/A is being filed solely to correct the date that Mr. Bupp terminated a pre-arranged stock trading plan, which was incorrect in the original Form 8-K filed on June 9, 2011.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

Neoprobe Corporation (the "Company") announced on June 1, 2011, that David C. Bupp, the Company's former Chief Executive Officer, and currently a member of the Company's Board of Directors, adopted a pre-arranged stock trading plan (the "Plan") pursuant to guidelines specified under Rule 10b5-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. On June 8, 2011, Mr. Bupp terminated the Plan. Prior to the Plan's termination, Mr. Bupp sold 700,000 shares of the Company's common stock under the terms of the Plan.

The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (the Act) provides a safe harbor for forward-looking statements made by or on behalf of the Company. Statements contained or incorporated by reference in this Current Report on Form 8-K, which relate to other than strictly historical facts, such as statements about the Company's plans and strategies, expectations for future financial performance, new and existing products and technologies, anticipated clinical and regulatory pathways, and markets for the Company's products are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Act. The words "believe," "expect," "anticipate," "estimate," "project," and similar expressions identify forward-looking statements that speak only as of the date hereof. Investors are cautioned that such statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from historical or anticipated results due to many factors including, but not limited to, the Company's continuing operating losses, uncertainty of market acceptance of its products, reliance on third party manufacturers, accumulated deficit, future capital needs, uncertainty of capital funding, dependence on limited product line and distribution channels, competition, limited marketing and manufacturing experience, risks of development of new products, regulatory risks and other risks detailed in the Company's most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, and other SEC filings. The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements.
